BIOGRAPHY

Born in 1983, Anne Golaz graduated in 2013 from the Photography Master Program of Aalto University of Art and Design in Helsinki. She wrote her master thesis «On Photobooks and Narratives» and studied previously at the Photography School in Vevey – Switzerland. In 2012 she spent 6 months in NYC at the School of Visual Arts. Anne Golaz's first work Rural Scenes has been exhibited in several places since 2008. Her next series Chasses (Hunting Games) was published in 2010 and among the selected works for the Aperture Portfolio Prize. Anne Golaz was part of the young photographers selected in 2010 for the publication and the exhibition ReGeneration2 by the Elysée Museum in Lausanne. Her Finnish series Metsästä (From The Woods) was exhibited during the Images Festival 2012 in Vevey and in several places since that. Metsästä was published by Kehrer Verlag and shortlisted in 2012 by the Aperture Paris Photo First Book Award.

Anne Golaz is also a member of the Finnish artists collective “Maanantai”, and their common projects “Nine Nameless Mountains” and “Further I will not venture alone” exhibited lately at the Innsbruck Biennale of the Arts. She is represented by the gallery C in Switzerland and her work was part of the new Discovery Award selection of the Rencontres d'Arles 2018. She published her last book Corbeau (MACK, 2017) a body of work made over twelve-years, which was shortlisted among the best books by the Aperture – Paris Photo 2017 photobook award and in the photo-text category of the Rencontres d'Arles book prize this year. Beyond the initial book form Corbeau brings together photographs, texts, drawings and video installation into a complex narrative exploration. Anne Golaz is currently based in the north of Finland, she is involved in several international collaborations, teaching and editorial projects.
